

Brady tours site of ATHOS oil spill (01/10/05)

PHILADELPHIA --- Congressman Robert A. Brady, joined by Pennsylvania State Representative Bill Keller, touring the site of the spill of crude oil into the Delaware River by the ATHOS I on Nov. 26.

The spill, one of the worst in the Delaware River's history, temporarily stopped shipping traffic and impacted approximately 107 miles of shoreline.

Congressman Brady said he was pleased with the clean-up efforts by the Coast Guard, state, local agencies and contracted environmental agencies. But he stressed, "the clean-up continues." To report an oiled area, call 267-765-3446; to report injured wildlife, call 215-365-1558; and, file a spill-related claim call 866-401-0353.

For more information visit:

U.S.
Coast Guard Atlantic Area

5th District Public Information Site

Congressman Brady is joined by Pennsylvania State

Representative Bill Keller, touring the site of the spill of crude oil

into the Delaware River by the ATHOS I on Nov. 26 2004.

